

Internships with Friends of Linden Hill, Inc.

Internship Opportunities – Call for Proposals:

We invite motivated and curious students to submit internship proposals and inquiries to join our historic estate team. As a site dedicated to preservation, education, and public engagement, we offer meaningful, hands-on learning experiences across a wide range of professional fields.

Position Description:

Our internship program is designed for students currently enrolled in post-secondary education who are seeking practical experience aligned with their academic and career interests. Interns will have the opportunity to contribute to the stewardship and daily operations of a historic estate while developing valuable professional skills.

Areas of Opportunity:

We welcome proposals in, but not limited to, the following areas:

- Museum studies (collections management, archives, exhibit development)
- Preservation and conservation
- Landscaping and groundskeeping
- Marketing, communications, and digital media
- Hospitality and visitor services
- Tourism and public programming
- Administrative and operational support

Applicants are encouraged to propose projects or areas of focus that align with both their academic goals and the mission of the estate.

Compensation:

Paid internships are available for qualified candidates. Compensation details will be discussed during the selection process and may vary depending on the scope and duration of the internship.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Current enrollment in a post-secondary institution (college, university, or technical program)
- Strong interest in history, preservation, or relevant operational fields
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively

Application Process:

To be considered, please submit the following:

- A current resume
- A cover letter outlining your interests, relevant experience, and proposed area of focus

Applications and inquiries should be sent to our office. Selected candidates may be invited for an interview to further discuss their proposal and potential fit.

Join Us

This is a unique opportunity to gain hands-on experience in a dynamic historic setting while contributing to meaningful work that preserves and shares our cultural heritage. We look forward to learning more about your interests and ideas.
